

Isleta Casino and Resort

We are finishing the construction of this challenging project for the Pueblo of Isleta. When we were looking at proposing on this latest addition to the Casino and Resort, we turned to Hunt Construction Group to create a partnership that would make this project a success. Our local experience and knowledge, with Hunt's immense experience on projects of this type (they are ranked #2 for Hotel construction by ENR), have yielded a fast track project with top of the line finishes and unique features to the New Mexico landscape. The project includes extensive convention and banquet space, a spa building that is reminiscent of a pot, a 5 star glass atrium and exciting new restaurant and event venues.
