

JFK Middle School

Located in Gallup, New Mexico, the JFK Middle School is receiving a renovation as well as a few additions by the Bradbury Stamm team. Norm Shain is leading the team in the field and Barbi Towne is heading the project as the Project Manager.

Additions include administrative offices, classrooms, multi-purpose areas, offices, a brick veneer exterior, partial stucco exterior, a steel joist roof, steel bar roof deck, an elevator and skylights.

This project included demolition and is quickly wrapping up for the much anticipated start of the 2008/2009 school year.

Location..... Gallup, NM
OwnerGallup-McKinley County Schools
Architect Dekker/Perich/Sabatini
Size 75,000 sf
Cost..... $11,860,000
Anticipated CompletionAugust 2008

