

Northeastern New Mexico Detention Facility

This 624 Bed Detention Facility also houses the Union County Detention Facility, which consists of 2 housing units. This phase involves the construction of 228,000 square feet of precast structures to include housing units, a maintenance building, support and activities centers, and administration buildings. Bradbury completed the extensive utility work by our own forces and is on schedule in spite of the harsh Clayton winter.

Project Manager:
James Carnes

Superintendent:
Frank Perea

Design Build

Location..... Clayton, NM
 Owner The Geo Group
 Architect..... Cromwell Architects/Engineers
 Cost.....$60M
 Size228,000 sf
 Completed..... June 2008

